

Harvest House Weddings

Harvest House Weddings offers a luxury wedding venue in the heart of Felixstowe, Suffolk. With lovely sea views and stunning rose gardens, your pictures will be a lasting memory you and your partner will cherish. The two large reception rooms can host up to 120 guests. Palm Court boasts glass domed ceilings and original marble flooring. Then invite your guests to dine with you in the Grand Dining Hall, where background music will create the perfect atmosphere for a wedding breakfast. Once you have enjoyed your meal, cut the cake and made those all important speeches we pack up your valuable items and get ready to lead you away to your evening function. Your evening function takes place less than a five minute walk away from Harvest House at the Felixstowe Tennis Club, which used to belong to Harvest House when it was first built and traded as Felix Hotel, back in 1903. Your photographer and guests will love the uniqueness of you leading the procession with lanterns. We take care of all the decorations for the tennis club as well, all part of the service.
